

Declaration of Intent

Corruption Prevention and Suppression is an important policy of the 20-year national strategy (2017-2036), in line with the 12th National Economic and Social Development Plan on government management to prevent corruption and misconduct and to promote good governance in Thai society, to be disciplined, transparent, committed to integrity, and to strengthen the immunity of the government sector, private sector, NGOs, and the public to build the power to drive values, fight corruption, coupled with effective government management.

So to put the policy into practice and be a role model, as the Permanent Secretary of the Ministry of Labour, pledges to administer the government with honesty, transparency, fairness and moral principles in the footsteps of His Majesty King Bhumibol Adulyadej as a guideline. It will bring the officials and staff of the Office of the Permanent Secretary of the Ministry of Labour to pay homage in the grace to follow the teachings, cooperate with all sectors in the prevention and suppression of corruption and focus on the common good as follows.

1. Transparency: Disclosure and access to operational information on missions and procurement of the Office of the Permanent Secretary of Labor by providing opportunities for service receivers and stakeholders to participate and monitor the implementation to improve the operation to be convenient, fast, equitable, transparent and fair.

2. Responsibility: The management and performance of the good governance and responsibility for the performance with honesty.

3. Freedom from Work Fraud: Encourage work practices based on ethical and moral principles to ensure that fraud and corruption are prevented and there will be no use of the position to facilitate or accept bribes to themselves and their followers.

4. Moral Culture in the Organization: Create a good culture in the organization and maintain it within the agency. Have measures to prevent and combat corruption, including the prevention of conflicts of interest to reduce the risk of fraud and misconduct.

5. Morality in the Workplace: Establish a guideline and mechanism to monitor the operation of inspectors and internal auditors to set clear, transparent, and fair standards in human resource management, job assignment, budget management, and improvement of the working environment.

6. Communication in the Department: Focus on communication to enhance better understanding and knowledge uninterruptedly to create an effective participation for transparency and fair in working.

The announcement is common knowledge.

Announced on 22 December 2017

Jarin Chakkaphark

(Mr. Jarin Chakkaphark)

Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Labour